

International Al Jolson Society 2027 Jolson Festival Philadelphia, PA April 8 to 11, 2027

All Jolson Fans, Friends, and Family:

After being shut down by a pandemic, and resorting to several Virtual Festivals, the IAJS is coming back together this year in the City of Brotherly Love, Philadelphia, to share our love of Al Jolson and his Legacy. This promises to be a memorable weekend of wall to wall Jolson material.

While plans are still firming up, we do know that there will be the presentations of Jolson material and trivia that all enjoy. Of course, an auction of material and memorabilia will feature objects of every sort. We will be celebrating the 100th anniversary of The Jazz Singer, and plan to have a look at that historic film. And, of course, two dinners with entertainment by our favorite personalities, and maybe some surprises.

We will be located in the magnificent, newly renovated Sheraton Suites Philadelphia Airport. Up to two guests per room can receive a full, hot, breakfast buffet; there is free WiFi in the rooms; and parking will be FREE! A complementary shuttle from and to Philadelphia International Airport, which is serviced by all major domestic airlines, as well as Aer Lingus, British Airways, and others. For those looking for other “things to do,” it is convenient to all of downtown Philadelphia's attractions, including Independence Hall, the Liberty Bell, the historic district, and shopping and cultural areas.

More information, rates, and registration forms will be forthcoming soon, and available on the website of the International Al Jolson Society, Inc., at <https://www.Jolson.org>, as well as being sent out with the next Jolson Journal and Journalette – both major reasons to be a member of the Society to be in the know.
